The Senate Tinkering With the Mc-Kinley Measure.

LARD AND ELECTIONS CUT A FIGURE.

The Conger Bill to Be Bitterly Opposed Buchapan's Chances in New Jersey Against Grubb.

The House to day took up the conference report, submitted by Mr. Reed of lows, on the "Original Package" bill. The report leaves the bill just as it passed the Senate and makes its provisions applicable to liquors only. The forty minutes' debate accorded under majority of the dead are children. the rules was opened by Mr. Reed of Iowa with a speech in support of the consideration of the Tariff bill. Mr. Gorman took the floor and continued his argument begun yesterday in favor of Mr. Morgan's amendment to reduce the duty on ore from which steel can be manufactured.

In the Senate. The Senate this morning resumed

A New Jersey Man's Prospects,

News comes from the Second New Jersey district that Representative Buchanan (Rep.) is to have opposition in the person of State Senator Carter of Burlington County. Mr. Buchanan is now serving his third term and is a falthful and hard working Representa-

The district is safely Republican. It was thought at one time that General E. Bard Grubb, defeated last year for Governor, would be Mr. Buchanan's rival, in which case it was conceded that Mr. Buchanan would have been de-General Grubb has feated. General Grubb has de-cided definitely not to run for Congress, but to hold off and run for Governor again in '92. That being a Presidential year it is thought Grubb may be successful. Mr. Buchanan is believed to be stronger than Mr. Carter and to have a very good prospect of serving his fourth term.

W. & C. H. H. Co. Mr. Barbour has introduced in the Senate a biil (54,310) to authorize the Washington and Cumberland Railroad Company to extend its road into the District.

Farmers' Alliance in Georgia. Hon. Allen Candler returned from his home in Georgia to day. He says the Farmers' Alliance are sweeping every thing and this regardless of the Democratic party. In his district, the Ninth, the Alliance has ostracised professional and town men and the farmers are running the machine to

LARD AND ELECTIONS. A STRUGGLE FOR PRECEDENCE BE-

TWEEN THE TWO INTERESTS. contest will arise between the Elections and the Agricultural Committees for right of way. The Elections Commit-tee is a privileged committee, but it giving way for the accomm dation of others for the past month or six weeks. It is tired of this, or rather the Republican members of the committee are, and the chairman, Mr Rowell, now proposes to assert his privilege, unless he believes that the refuses to back him. He will be antagonized by Mr. Funston, chairman of the Agricultural Committee. That committee has been promised two days. The bill it will insist on considering is the Conger Compound Lard bill,

House, i. e., his own side of the House,

It is said that the true inwardness of the struggle over this bill is that it is a fight between the Compound Lard Syndicate, headed by Phil Armour of Chicago on one side, and John B. Squires of Boston representing the PURE LEAF LARD syndicate. It seems that during the past year or two the compound article has driven the pure leaf lard to the wall, and in order for the latt r to hold the market at all the compound lard syndicate must be throttled. Hence the

The Squires syndicate claim they have secured Speaker Reed's influence, and in that way obtained the promise of two days.

Mr. Mason of Chicago, who will lead the Republican opposition to the Conger bill, says the bill won't pass the Even if it should, he says, it will go to the Senate Agricultural Committee, of which Senator George is a leading member, and there it will

Will Bnow Better Nest Time. In the Police Court this morning Abraham Throu, the proprietor of a store at No. 1250 Seventh street, was charged with seiling gon powder and fire arms to minors. This is a violation of a section in Webb's digest. Throu sold two boys, aged 10 and 12 years of age two five chamber revolvers and some cartridges. Judge Mills said it was worse to put a pistol in the hands of a boy than to sell whisky without a icense, and fined the defendant $10.

dwelt upon the significance of the indorsement which the new policy was receiving throughout the South, and to cap this phase of the argument he pointed to the prompt approval of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

When the opposition likely to de-velop in the House was referred to, Mr. Blaine's eyes snapped and he de-
